FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1916.

OREGON WEATHER Tonight and Saturday fair; cooler interior and northwest; portions tonight; westerly winds.

GRANTS PASS SUGAR. Grants Pass sugar is no longer a dream—it is a reality, and you can soon order it at the market and use it in your coffee at the breakfast table.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WOULD SUFFER

"If this amendment should be adopted," says Henry E. Reed, assessor of Multnomah county, "mortgages secured by land will not be worth the paper on which they are written."

"One of the principal sufferers in this regard will be the common school fund of Oregon, which has $6,200,000, or more than 97 per cent of its principal, loaned on first mortgages on land.

"The common school fund has played a noble part in the upbuilding and support of Oregon's splendid public school system. In less than 40 years it has earned in interest upwards of $6,70,000, which has been apportioned to the counties for the support of the schools.

"The impairment of this fund will seriously affect public education in Oregon to the extent of a revenue now approximately $400,000 a year. The mortgagors will not pay their debts. They will say to the state: 'You now have the total value of the land. You keep the land and we will keep your money, pay you a ground rent tax, and borrow as much as you will let us on our land improvements.'"

Oregon still owns 624,000 acres of school land. The single tax bill, as drawn by W. S. U'Ren to force all land out of its present owners' hands and into state ownership, specifically provides that the state shall sell no land. The measure would halt not only the progress of education but also the physical development of the state.

The single tax bill, now named the "Full Rental Value Land Tax and Homemakers' Loan Fund Amendment," is the first initiative measure on the ballot.

There is no doubt about a drift of sentiment toward Charles Evans Hughes for president. His election will mean the re-establishment of the American nation in the respect of the nations of the world. It will announce the return to a stable and a safe policy in the administration of our government affairs. It will be an assurance of peace.

SWEET POTATOES AT 6 POUNDS FOR 25c CRANBERRIES AT 10c PER QUART THE BEST VALUES IN COFFEES 15c TO 60c POUND KINNEY & TRUAX GROCERY QUALITY FIRST

Congressman Hawley, who has recently returned from the national capital and from points in the east, is most optimistic over the political situation. He says that throughout all the eastern states Hughes sentiment is strongly predominant and that in New York, where Hughes was recognized as the governor of the common people while he was in the office of the chief executive, there will be nothing but Hughes on election day.

Every box of apples shipped from the Rogue River valley will be worth 30 or 40 cents more when it can be loaded on ship board at the coast via the Grants Pass-Crescent City railroad. Then the fruit that wrecked the hopes of the first settlers of the Garden of Eden will find cheap transportation through the Panama canal, and the grower will realize the saving as added profit. This saving may represent the margin of profit for the producer some season's when there is less danger connected in shipments and perhaps lower prices.

NORTHWEST WHEAT AT RECORD PRICE TODAY

Portland, Oct. 27.—Wheat sold in the northwest today at the highest prices in the history of this section. Spot wheat was two to six cents higher. Bluestem sold for $1.50 on the Portland market. In the country districts sales of bluestem were made at $1.64 per bushel, Portland delivery.

The high prices are due to the unusual demand from middle western and Kentucky millers.

To the Voters of Josephine County:

The platform upon which I solicit your vote on November 7th for the office of representative from this county is the same as that upon which I sought the republican nomination. It is the platform of economy in state expenditures, for it is through economy in legislative appropriations that we can hope for reduced tax levies.

A residence of 21 years in Josephine county, and a familiarity with its business conditions during all of that time, places me in a position to know the needs of the various interests, of the miner, the lumberman, the farmer and the fruitgrower, the fisherman and the business man, and my first interest as a legislator will be to faithfully represent their interests and to serve them to the best of my ability.

I have no great legislative reforms to advance, but stand for economy, for fewer laws, and a consolidation of boards and commissions.

A. E. VOORHIES.

CLEAR DOBRUDJA OF ALLIED FORCES

Berlin, Oct. 27.—Fleeing Russo-Roumanian forces are evacuating practically all of Dobrudja, said an official statement from the Bulgarian war office today.

"On the whole front the enemy is retreating precipitately toward Tulcea, Braila and Harsova, pursued by our forces," said the statement issued at Sofia. "Wednesday's captures included 15 officers, 771 men and 15 machine guns."

(Tulcea lies 70 miles north of Constanza, on the southern arm of the Danube, and a few miles from the Russian frontier. Braila lies about 70 miles north of Cernavoda, on the Danube, and Harsova about 25 miles northwest of Cernavoda, on the Danube.)

King Ferdinand dispatched personal appeals to the rulers of allied nations to save Roumania from disaster after the fall of Constanza, according to Petrograd dispatches. The messages were sent following a stormy session of the Roumanian cabinet. Roumanian military leaders were said to have been harshly criticized by several of the ministers, but supported by the king, who declared the Roumanian defeat was due to the fact that Russia had failed to supply the artillery and munitions she had promised.

German military men expect an early demonstration by the allies, probably on the Italian and Macedonian fronts, in response to King Ferdinand's appeal. Because of the allied armies' lack of sufficient munitions for great offensives on these fronts, the attacks are expected to be short-lived, and directed largely for the purpose of encouraging the disheartened Roumanians.

Worthy of Admiration. Her Dad—So you want to marry my daughter? I like your nerve. Sutor—Well, sir, you ought to spend a whole lot of time working it up.—Boston Transcript.
